Business Notice.-We desire to call attention to the advertisement of Mesars. Arm-STRONG & Co. These gentlemen are engaged in the sale of Paints, oils, glass, marbleized iron, fertilizers, grass seeds, agricultural implements, such as plows, straw cutters, threshers, reapers and mowers, portable steam engines &c. They are generally the agents of Manufacturers, and by their thorough knowledge of business, and uniform attention and punctuality, have built up a large busine-s both with the manufacturers and farmers of the country, which is alike convenient and beneficial to all. At the recent Fair in this city they received as many as ten or a dozen premiums for their agricultural machinery. It is a pleasure to do business with just such

Dr. J. H. Robinson, the great story writer, er column, is writing a story for the New York WEEKLY, under the title of "NICK WHIFFLES; Or, The Trapper Guide," which cannot fail to create an extraordinary demand for that already popular paper. The field chosen by the could have been selected. The whole History of the North-west is one great Romance, which in the hands of a man like Dr. Robinson cannot fail to attract the universal attention of the reading world. In the particular line he has chosen. Dr. Robinson has no rival in the world of letters, and we should judge from the fact that the proprietor of the WEEKLY has secured his exclusive services, in addition | in the one essential, utility. to such writers as Francis S. Smith, Mrs. Mary C. Vanghan, Helen Forest Graves, James A. he means to make a bold push for the tallest kind of a circulation.

The ceremony of laying the cornerstone of the new Methodist Church, at the corner of College and Mulberry streets, took place on Monday evening, in the presence of quite a large crowd of ladies and gentlemen. Rev. P. P. NEELY delivered a most chaste and eloquent address, and was followed by Dr. McFerrain, in a forcible appeal for the means to build the church. The design of the edifice is beautiful, and if perfected will greatly enhance the beauty of that part of the city. It is to be 70 by 45 feet. There was something like two thousand dollars subscribed on this occasion, Isaac Paul heading ous committees who have the work in charge, will urge it to a speedy completion, and hope the citizens of all parts of the city will extend prompt and liberal aid towards erecting a sanctuary that shall be a credit to them and | the trouble to examine these reports, convince an ornament to the city. To Mr. A. W. Goodell.

SEWANEE HOUSE, NASHVILLE, SIR :- As your machine, as well as all its Sir:—As your machine, as well as all its parts and operations, is quite familiar to me, I do not think it really necessary that I should be further 'enlightened in the arts and mysteries of the Sewing Machine.' I flatter myself that I possess the capacity and am fully competent to properly understand and appreciate the one lone and diminutive merit possessed by your Nettleton & Raymond Machine. In mit: the price, $10 at wholesale or thine, to wit: the price, $10 at wholesale or $25 at retail; in other respects on a par and a near relative and member of the same family, running parallel with the famous Watson ten ollar piratical wreck of an Ill-spent life. But to the Stitch. We deplore thy condition. Thou art a good and faithful servant, having been reared and properly trained in thy youth, and why didst thou listen to the winning voice of deception, and suffer thyself, like poor dog Tray, to be caught in bad company? But to the point. We will endeavor to make our 'squib' as short as the nature and complication of the case will admit. By reference to my letter in the Union & American of the 22d you will observe my first inter-"Have you any legal right to vend or use your machine in any portion of the United

Your answer to this question, although so ery simple, plain, and extremely easy to be inderstood, is as follows: "We have a legal right to dispose of the Patent issued in the United States, to Nettleton & Raymond, April 14th, 1858." Mr. Goodell may think that he has answered my question, but the 'discriminating public will doubtless come to a different conclusion. The answer speaks for itself--a direct evasion and total disregard of the points in question. A hard question-did not expect a direct answer even from the most learned in the whole class of piratical students. My 2d interrogatory: "Is not the rough surface feed motion, as well as the formation of the stitch made by your machine, a direct infringement of other well-known patents?" You answer by saying you "do not use the rough and surface feed." Well, now, we do not like to say that you have made a mistatement in your attempt to answer this question, and will therefore insist that you examine more minutely the construction of your Nettleton & Raymond machine some time when you are not so much "pressed with business" as at the present, and make, if possible, a fair and more direct report; we think you will have no difficulty in making the discovery of both the rough and the surface feed And when you make the discovery-which doubtless you will, for we know its there, and we know further, that it is a direct infringement of other well-known patent-please be candid enough to acknowledge the fact. In answer to my 3d interrogatory you say you have given "for a YEAR PAST most satisfactory guarantees." Now, if you have a valid patent, why the necessity of giving any guarantee at all? And you further state that you never before had it questioned, that your patent infringed "on no one." Now I think if you will refer to my letter addressed to Johnson & Goodell, September 8th, 1857, you will there find the validity o the Nettleton & Raymond patent questioned

You no doubt have my letter with you, but when the nature of that letter is understood, we do not think your sales of 'exclusive rights' to vend the Nettleton & Raymond machine will be much augmented. You may coase further to flatter yourself with the idea toat my letter addressed to Johnson & Goodell was for the purpose of soliciting the sale of your machines in the city of Nashville or anywhere else. You know very well that this was not my object. I have written several letters of inquiry to many others purporting to be inventors of Sewing Machines of the ever, as in the case referred to-my letter to Johnson & Goodell-nothing more than an answer, which is of more importance to me than the questionable commodity they propose to vend.

And further, I should be unwilling to step so far aside from all just and honorable rules author is one of the most interesting that of fair dealing, as to vend and recommend to the public an article that I believed to be so entirely worthless and so wholly void of merit as the Nettleton & Raymond Sewing Ma-

We have Messrs, Johnson & Goodell's an swer, as you doubtless are aware, and also have what purports to be a copy of the Net tleton & Raymond invention; an evidence not only beyond all cavil, of direct infringement in many respects, but utterly worthless

I do not deny your right to sell the patent, f any, issued to Nettleton & Raymond. But I do deny that you, or any one else, has any Maitland, Augustine J. H. Duganne, etc., that legal right to use or vend the machine you be means to make a hold push for the tallest call the Nettleton & Raymond Patent, with its present feed motion-and whenever you, or any one else, claiming to be responsible ell or attempt to use your machine in this community, shall be soon made aware that the amount paid for the machine is not a clear

As regards your assertion, which is nothing more or less than assertion, relative to a Patent issued to Fisher & Gibbons of England, you have very widely missed the mark. We pen to be familiar with the form of said claim or patent, to which you allude, and your statement, or assertion in this respect, is too absard to deserve notice. However, it may serve your ends in carrying out the principle of business in which you are engaged. If you will just step across the street from your "Parlor No I." to the Mechanics' Library and there examine the Patent Office reports inder the following dates, Feb. 11th, 1857, June 22, 1852, Feb. 21, 1853, and May 27th, the list with $1000. We trust that the vari- 1856, then ask yourself, if the assertion or, in other words, your attempt to answer my 5th interrogatory, has the slightest foundation in truth-please take particular notice of patent report of June 22d, 1852, No. 9053-and you may, as well as any one else who will take yourself of the Grover & Baker claim, and also at the same time, will perceive, the so called Nettleton & Raymond Machine uses surface feed or notched bar, and without this feed motion the said Nettleton & Raymond Machine could not take a stitch.

It would, I think, be well for the purchaser of what you propose to yend, to look into these reports above referred to. This is only one point of infringement. I might mention many others, but the one above, more particuare lost every year, either for the want of larly referred to, is so palpable that it is at their owners knowing how to treat them, or once made apparent to any one upon a slight it is very cheap-extremely so, when compared with that class of Machine, for which you propose to sell the right to vend. The high ace drives off the bad humors that feed and times fairly and correctly represented to the public, while the Nettleton & Raymond Machine belongs to the Watson & Wooster gentleman Mr. A. W. Goodell, so highly "endorsed by prominent fellow citizens," was late-

I will here state, in conclusion, that I desire to cast no imputations upon the private might infer, understanding the nature of his business. Now we deny that any patent ever issued to Nettleton & Raymond, for the invention you set forth and called the Netthe on & Raymond Double Lo & St th Family Sewing Machine, and we further deny that said Nettleton & Raymond, are or ever were the inventors of any Sewing Machine. Show up your claim Mr. Goodell; it is but justice to

It is not the merits of the Nettleton & Raymond Machine that called forth my interrogatories in the Nashville Union & American of of the 22d, for fair and honorable competition is but just-but a sense of justice to the parties we represent and more especially the public, who you seem so extremely auxious to serve, requir s at our hands a course, which may place before disinterested parties, the true condition of the right in question. And as this is but one of a great number similar in character, and almost every day adds another to the list, we shall ever hold ourself in readiness, as they make their appearance, to show them up in their true light. We know them all, and are familiar with their deformities, and they shall at all times have our especial at-May 24th, 1858.

IMMENSE AMOUNT OF SUFFERING RELIEVED BY TAKING MCLEAN'S STRENGTHENING CORDIAL -Since the 17th of August, the following cases have been reported cured:

105 persons have been cured of General Debility; 68 persons have been cured of Nervous Debility; 28 persons have been cared of diseases of the Kidneys; 108 persons who have been afflicted with various complaints, Fever, Chronic Diarrhea, Dysentery, Liver complaints, Night Sweats, Dyspepsia, and Weakness of the Digestive Organs, have been cured, besides a large number from whom we have not yet heard. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is a remedy required by every one in the Western and Southern country. It is very pleasant and agreeable to take, and it can be taken by man, woman or child. As a diuretic, it will cure any disease of the Kidneys or Bladder, and as an alterative, it will purify the blood, and remove all pimples, sores or blotches from the skin. Try it-one drachm is sufficient to convince the most sceptical of its wonderful strengthening and invigorating properties. See the advertisement in another column.

W. E. CHILDS & CO.'S PATENT Elastic Fire and Water Proof CEMENT ROOFING.

THE undersigned purchased the State Right for Tennessee of the above patent about one year ago and has since introduced it extensively in various ers, and the public generally, to examine its superiorty over other modes of Roofing impervious to water, elastic and flexibles it wil riccity resist any ordinary exposure to fire; it is eaper than any roof of the old style, and I am sure it will give better satisfaction; as to its durability there is no question. It is the best thing ever invented for painting of old leaky tin roofs.

The Cement will be furnished to those at a dis-ance with directions for using. es Orders sent to the undersigned, through cost Office will be promptly attended to. I would respectfully refer to the following gentle-men for whom I have covered buildings with the Cement, and many others whose names are not h ARCHITECTS AND MASTER MECHANICS OF NASHVILLE.

HiGHLANIER was bred by Thomas Taylor, of S. C., in 49, he was got by Giencese, map., his dam Castanet, a winner at all distances, by Monarch, mp., &c., his pedigree is fall, pure and fazaionable, and like the horse himself excites the admiration of the most critical observers. horse himself excites the admiration of the most criti-cal observers.

Hidil.ANDER is a rich chestnut, of excellent consti-tation and temper, measuring 16 hands in height, and has unusual length and stoutness of frame, coupled with surpassing beauty of form and action. As a groat resonance, Highlander's reputation throughout the Union, was, for some time, hardly equalised, having beaten, in the best style, all of his many competitors in South Carolina and Georgia, until about five years old, when he was sold for $10,000, and at once went forth to meet other formidable rivals, wherever to be found.

In this extremely trying career, Highlander gained as iarge a share of success as has ever attended any race-horse, under like circumstances—constantly traveling and running all distances as he did, whether in good or high health and condition.

All who have examined HighHI ANDER and his coltaffeely express the opinion, that, as a breader of superior stock, for easy use, he will take rank among the most reputable horses of the country.

43—No. 17, Guover & Baker's Sewing Machines: No. 164, Singer's—REPORT upon the PRINCIPAL points and merits of the two machines as follows:

The machines are both two-thread tanchines, that is, using two separate threads for making the stitch; that of Grovers & Berra udag the thread from COMMON SPOOLS WITH TWO NEEDLES; and that of Singer's using one spool and one needle, the other thread working from a BOBBIN INCLOSED IN A SHUTTLE, and, in the opinion of the committee, is best adapted to FINE CLOTHING, SADDLERY, &c.

The GROVER & BAKER as the LEAST COMPLICATED MACHINERY, AND, OF COURSE, EASIER MANAGED; advantage of USING SPOOLS WITHOUT RE-WIND
ING; and, with the exception of fine cloth ing, saddiery, &c., in the opinion of the Committee is BEST SUITED FOR FAMILY
